No alcohol should never mean no flavour. Quite the opposite. Our brewmasters use the finest Czech ingredients and follow the same time-honoured brewing process as our Original Lager, just gently removing the alcohol at the very end. That's what makes Budvar 0.0% stand apart from other non-alcoholic lagers. It may be free of alcohol, but it is still full of flavour, with our Head Brewer ensuring it retains the rich, satisfying, and distinctive Czech taste.
